BArch(Hons) Dublin

David's highly regarded design skills are complemented by a recognised ability to work collaboratively with clients, project managers, contractors and consultant teams, ensuring the successful completion of all projects

David Kelly is a principal of BVN, based in the Brisbane Studio. He graduated from University College Dublin in 1987 and joined BVN in 1993. He has extensive experience in the planning and design of large cultural, education and institutional projects, and is particularly skilled at preparing and developing planning briefs and master plans in close consultation with user groups, ensuring that their requirements and objectives are fully incorporated in the final design. He has managed large teams on a range of major and complex projects, most recently the $850M Moorebank Units Relocation Project, and the $800M Enoggera Facilities Project (ELF 2B) for the Department of Defence. David is dedicated to ensuring that a high quality of services to clients is maintained and that all project objectives are met. He is highly skilled as a Project Leader, through all phases of a project from inception through to completion. His highly regarded design skills are complemented by a recognised ability to work collaboratively with clients, project managers, contractors and consultant teams, ensuring the successful completion of all projects.
